Preface

The first Co-operative Law of India. The Co-operative Credit Societies Act, 1904 was passed on 25th March 1904. Agricultural District in Karnataka was the first cooperative of Gadag District in Karnataka was the first cooperative society formed under First Cooperative law of India. This was launched on 8th July 1905 by the villagers of Kanaginahalli under the leadership of Shri Siddanagowda Sanna Ramanagowda Patil with the initial share capital of Rupees two thousand.

But this had very limited scope covering just the credit cooperative Societies. Later in 1912, The British Government enacted the Cooperative Societies Act, 1912 which had wider scope for other types of cooperative Societies to function. When the cooperatives were brought under the list of Provincial Governments in 1919, the Act of 1912 was a model for all provinces to enact their own Cooperative Act. Soon After independence many states brought their own cooperative laws. At the national level, a Multi state cooperative societies Act was enacted.

In the past Independence period, crores of rupees were spent on popularizing the Cooperative Movement and make it a successful venture. The Central Planning Commission realized that the cooperative sector failed with much less drastic change that was expected. The effort and the funds invested went in vain and as this was realized, the Ardhanarshwaran Committee was formed, The Committee in its report in 1987 after studying declared that the Cooperative Movement has failed in the Country because of the heightened Intervention of the Government in the affairs of the Cooperatives.

Realizing the need for the growth of the sector that promotes the economic development of the people requiring the voluntary participation in the affairs the planning commission formed another Commission under the able leadership of Sri Choudhary Brahmprakash, This Commission presented a model Cooperatives Act in 1991. The Central Government circulated this model Act to all states with an advice to incorporate the same as it ensures more power to the members, more member participation and less government intervention in the affairs of the Cooperatives. Karnataka came out with The Karnataka Souharda Sahakara Act, 1997 framed on the lines of the Model Act given by Sri Choudhary Brahamaprakash committee.

The Act came into force from January 1, 2001. Till date more than 2500 cooperatives are registered under this Act. Karnataka Souharda Federal Cooperative Ltd., the statutory regulatory body under the Act is also functioning since twelve years.

Recently both houses of legislature of Karnataka have passed some amendment to the Karnataka Souharda Sahakari Act, 1997 by Karnataka Souharda Sahakari (Amendment) Act, 2012. The Federal Cooperative is publishing the Act with all amendments incorporated. Along with Act, Order delegation of power by state government, clarification regarding Membership in DCC Banks and some other important orders also included. We hope this Book will be useful for Cooperators and thus strengthen the cooperative movement.

COOPERATIVE PRINCIPLES

- (1) Co-operatives are voluntary organisations, open to all persons able to use their services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.
- (2) Co-operatives are democratic organisations controlled by their members, who actively participate in setting their policies and making decisions. Men and women serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In Primary co-operatives, members have equal voting rights (One member, one vote) and co-operatives at other levels are organised in a democratic manner.
- (3) Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control the capital of their co-operative. At least part of that capital is usually the common property of the co-operative. They usually receive limited compensation, if any, on the capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members allocate surpluses for any or all of the following purposes; developing the co-operative possibly by setting up reserves part of which at least would be indivisible, benefitting members in proportion to their transactions with the co-operative; and supporting other activities approved by the membership.
- (4) Co-operatives are autonomous, self-help organisations controlled by their members. If they enter into agreements with other organisations including Government or raise capital from external sources, they do so on terms that ensure democratic control by their members and maintain their co-operative autonomy.

- (5) Co-operatives provide education and training for their members, elected representatives, managers, and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of their co-operatives. They inform the general public particularly young people and leaders about the nature and benefits of co-operation.
- (6) Co-operatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local, regional, national and international structures.
- (7) While focusing on member needs, co-operatives work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies accepted by their members.
